THE MAGIC OF SANTANA

It doesn't matter whether he plays his Latin rock, pop, soul, bluesy or jazz: one thing has always been said about the music of guitar legend Carlos Santana and his unmistakable sound over the course of his more than 50-year career - that it is magical!

So it's no wonder that Gerd Schlueter christened his band THE MAGIC OF SANTANA in 2010...

The Hamburg Santana fan and guitarist has been bringing the music of his idol to international stages for more than 13 years. THE MAGIC OF SANTANA are reinforced by legendary

SANTANA singers Alex Ligertwood (1979 to 1994) and 11-time Grammy winner Tony Lindsay (1995 to 2015). After gigs all over Europe, THE MAGIC OF SANTANA is considered the best Santana band in this genre! With seven professional musicians, all of whom share a passion for this energetic music, and original members of SANTANA, they play their way through the Mexican guitarist's unique repertoire in their pulsating shows. Nobody can sit still when THE MAGIC OF SANTANA and three percussionists rock the stage with rough Latin rock classics like "Jingo", "Soul Sacrifice", "Oye Como Va" or "Evil Ways".

And nobody stays untouched when soulful melodies like "Somewhere in Heaven", "Black Magic Woman", "Europa" or "Samba Pa Ti" are played. This band convinces with great joy of playing and give everything at their performances. Always with your own handwriting, but without neglecting the original.
